Gathering Hymn

There's a wideness in God's mercy

The 1982 Hymnal, #470

Presider No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here. Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen

Presider Gather us in, the lost and the lonely, the broken and breaking, the tired and the aching, who long for the nourishment found at your feast.

People Gather us in

Presider the done and the doubting, the wishing and wondering, the puzzled and pondering who long for the company found at your feast.

People Gather us in

Presider the proud and pretentious, the sure and superior, the never inferior, who long for the leveling found at your feast.

People Gather us in

Presider the bright and the bustling, the stirrers, the shakers, the kind laughter-makers who long for the deeper joys found at your feast.

People Gather us in

Presider from corner or limelight, from mansions or campsite, from fears and obsession, from tears and depression, from untold excesses, from treasured successes, to meet, to eat, be given a seat, be joined to the vine, be offered new wine, become like the least, be found at the feast.

People Gather us in.

The Collect for Purity

(BCP p355)

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open...through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Kyrie

Cantor, All repeat

Salutation and Collect

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

A moment for silent prayer follows, after which the Officiant prays the Collect of the Day.

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

People Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Please be seated.

The First Lesson

Job 38:1-18

The Reader first says "A reading from the Book of Job" and then proceeds with the reading:

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:

‘Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

Gird up your loins like a man,

I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

‘Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me, if you have understanding.

Who determined its measurements—surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

‘Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—

when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band,

and prescribed bounds for it,

and set bars and doors,

and said, “Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped”?

‘Have you commanded the morning since your days began,

and caused the dawn to know its place,

so that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?

It is changed like clay under the seal,

and it is dyed like a garment.

Light is withheld from the wicked, and their uplifted arm is broken.

‘Have you entered into the springs of the sea,

or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Have the gates of death been revealed to you,
or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth?

Declare, if you know all this.

After the lesson, the Reader says, "Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people"

People Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1-9, 25, 37

The cantor begins the psalm by singing the refrain. Then all the people repeat it. The cantor sings the verses, and the people repeat the refrain.

- 1 Bless the Lord, O my soul;
O Lord my God, how excellent is your greatness!
You are clothed with majesty and splendor.
- 2 You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak and spread out the heavens like a curtain.
- 3 You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters, above; you make the clouds your chariot;
you ride on the wings of the wind.
- 4 You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your servants.
- 5 You have set the earth on its foundations,
so that it never shall move at any time.
- 6 You covered it with the Deep as with a mantle;
the waters stood higher than the mountains.
- 7 At your rebuke they fled; at voice of your thunder they hastened away.
- 8 They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath, to the places you had appointed for them.
- 9 You set the limits that they should not pass;
they shall not again cover the earth.
- 25 O Lord, how manifold are your works!
In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- 37 Hallelujah!

The Epistle

Ephesians 1:3-10

The Reader first says "A reading from the letter to the Ephesians" then proceeds to the reading:
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

After the lesson, the Reader says

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

After the reading, the Deacon says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The People repeat the Gospel Acclamation as the Gospel is processed back to the altar

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(This form of the Prayers of the People comes from the Holy Hikes liturgy)

- Deacon* Let us pray for the Church and for the world.
- Intercessor* Grant, Loving God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and work for the good of all your creation. We pray especially for All Saints' parish family; for Justin, our Priest; for Pam, our Deacon; for Marc, our Bishop; for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; and for Justin Welby, the Archbishop of Canterbury. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* God, we pray for this world you have made. We ask your blessing on earth, wind, and water. Preserve this sweet place in its course through the cosmos. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We pray for the community of living creatures. Guide us in our works and ways, that every being may praise you with its life and serve you all of its days. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We pray for our human family. You named us stewards of this Earth, and call us to tend it and care for it. Teach us to live in harmony together, that we might live in harmony with your Creation. We pray for those in need of strength and healing, especially those we now name aloud or in our hearts: [...silence for people to add names...]. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* God, you call us to seek what is good. We stand in the rubble of many bad choices. Give us strength and courage to change our ways, so this Earth may flourish under our care. We lift to you, especially, the concerns that are on our hearts: [...silence for people to add their concerns...]. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We give you thanks, O God, for the abundance of this earth. Help us continually to thank you for the blessings that surround us, especially those we now name aloud or in our hearts: [...silence for people to add thanksgivings...]. Living God, in your compassion,
- People* hear our prayer.

Intercessor Creator of all, we remember and pray for those who have walked the Earth before us, who have died and ventured beyond this earthly home, especially those we now name aloud or in our hearts: [...silence for people to add names...].

Living God, in your compassion,

People hear our prayer.

The Presider offers the following concluding Collect.

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

THE CONFESSION

The Deacon says

Let us confess our sins against God, the Earth, and our neighbor.

Presider and People together

Holy God, Creator and Lover of all that is, we confess to you that we have sinned.

We have failed in our care for the land and its creatures, we have been greedy, destructive, and wasteful of the resources you entrusted to us.

Polluted air and water,

eroded soil and salty earth,

birds and animals deprived of habitat, and neighbors left hungry and thirsty by our selfishness: all these cry out against us.

We do not know how to restore what we have damaged, and we repent in sorrow and distress.

Forgive us, we pray, and have mercy.

Give us grace to change our ways,

to make amends,

and to work together for the healing of the world, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Standing, the Presider says

Our Savior died and rose again so that for all who live in him there is a new creation. Therefore I declare to you: your sins are forgiven, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Send out your Spirit, O Lord. Renew the hearts of your people.
Renew the face of the earth. Amen.

THE PEACE

Remain standing as able.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING – CELTIC

- Presider* The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, for you made us, and before us, you made the world we inhabit, and before the world, you made the eternal home in which, through Christ, we have a place. All that is spectacular, all that is plain have their origin in you. All that is lovely, all who are loving, point to you as their fulfillment. And grateful as we are for the world we know and the universe beyond our knowing, we particularly praise you, whom eternity cannot contain, for coming to earth and entering time in Jesus the Christ. For his life which informs our living, for his compassion which changes our hearts, for his clear speaking which contradicts our harmless generalities, for his disturbing presence, his innocent suffering, his fearless dying, his rising to life breathing forgiveness, we praise you and worship him.

Here, too, our gratitude rises for the promise of the Holy Spirit, who even yet, even now, confronts us with your claims and attracts us to your goodness. Therefore we gladly join our voices to the song of the Church on earth and in heaven:

HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy from Mass of the Celtic Saints by Liam Lawton
 Copyright © 1998 by GIA Publications, Inc. • All Rights Reserved

All glory to you, Giver of life sufficient and full for all creation. Accept our praises, living God, for Jesus Christ, the one perfect offering for the world, who in the night that he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.”

After supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said: “Drink this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for all, to forgive sin. Do this as often as you drink it to remember me.”

And now, lest we believe that our praise alone fulfills your purpose, we fall silent and remember him who came because words weren’t enough. Setting our wisdom, our will, our words aside, emptying our hearts, and bringing nothing in our hands, we yearn for the healing, the holding, the accepting, the forgiving which Christ alone can offer.

Merciful God, send now, in kindness, your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus, that it may be for us the Body and Blood of your Christ. And let that same Spirit rest on us, converting us from the patterns of this passing world, until we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

People Amen.

Presider Taking the hand of a person near you, and remembering that if anyone lacks bread, it is our responsibility to provide it; and that if any stands in need of forgiveness and reconciliation, we are called to be part of God's reconciling presence in the world, let us pray as Jesus taught,

THE LORD’S PRAYER

(This version of the Lord’s Prayer comes from Great Creating Spirit: A Celtic Earth Mass for the Celebration of Communion by John Philip Newell, used at our weekly Celtic Earth Mass)

Ground of all being, Mother of life,
 Father of the universe.
 May we know your presence here,
 Seeking your will upon earth.
 Grant all your creatures food for today
 And strength for our families.
 Pardon our falseness as we forgive
 Those who are untrue to us.
 Do not forsake us in our need but lead us to new birth.
 For the glory of life and the light of life are yours forever. Amen.

IONA INVITATION

The table is now ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate. So, come to this table, you who have much faith and you who would like to have more; you who are here for the first time; you who have been here often; you who have not been for a long time; you who have tried to follow Jesus and you who have failed; come. It is Christ himself who invites us to meet him here.

+ + + HOLY COMMUNION + + +

The Presider and altar party receive the Holy Sacrament, and then deliver it to the People.

All who seek Christ are welcome to receive Communion.

- To receive the consecrated bread, extend your hands forward together, palm up to the priest.
- To receive the consecrated wine, help guide the chalice to take a sip or you may dip the bread.
- Consecrated grape juice is available from the chalice on the far left.
- Gluten free wafers are available; just ask for one!
- If you do not wish to receive Communion, but would instead like a blessing, come forward and cross your arms over your chest and the priest will bless you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER TO THE SPIRIT

(This prayer comes from Great Creating Spirit: A Celtic Earth Mass for the Celebration of Communion by John Philip Newell, used at our weekly Celtic Earth Mass)

Presider

Standing together, as able, let us pray.

Presider and People together

Great Creating Spirit,

who swept over the depths of the unknown to give birth to creation in all its splendor.

Great Creating Spirit,

who conceived new life in the womb of Mary to give birth to the Child of Peace.

Great Creating Spirit,

who hovers over the waters of the human soul today to give birth to healings and visions that have never been before.

Come to us as an earth community.

Come to us as nations of the world.

Grant us wholeness.

Grant us healing.

Grant us together a new language that we may be one.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr. Justin presents upcoming announcements.

*(To have an announcement included next week, please make prior arrangements
