

Faythe Freese, Concert Organist

An evening of organ music accompanied by dance, screen projections, and light effects.

Tuesday, July 2 · 8 - 9:30pm · Free Admission
Grace Cathedral · 1100 California Street, San Francisco 94108

Faythe Freese, Professor Emeritus of Organ at the University of Alabama School of Music, is in demand internationally as a recitalist. She has been called “an organ superstar” (Denver Post) and evinces “fiery and virtuosic playing” (The Boston Musical Intelligencer).

Presented in conjunction with the American Guild of Organists 2024 National Convention in San Francisco (June 30-July 4), Dr. Freese’s colorful and engaging program at Grace Cathedral presents music by Langlais, Jermar, Guilmant, Decker, Price, and Sowerby. The concert will be accompanied by nine dancers choreographed by Kristin D’Addario, screen projections, and light effects on the interior cathedral walls.

This free concert is a gift to the Bay Area from the American Guild of Organists San Francisco National Convention.
